Commission Guidelines Commission work is an agreement between the artist and the client to make a specific work. The client agrees to pay half down prior to the start of the commission, and the second half upon project completion. The client understands the artist will utilize her style to make a creative and original piece of artwork with them in mind, and the client agrees she trusts the artist in her design decisions.

All commission sales will be final after the piece is started and half down is payed. No returns are possible on commission orders. Ani Eastwood holds copyrights and rights to photograph all commission work upon project completion. She holds rights to sole distribution and future printings/limited edition, cards giclees etc of her work including the commissioned piece. She will be notified in the future if there is to be a sale of her original piece. Ani Eastwood's artwork will not be utilized by the client for any financial gain or business investment. Ani Eastwood agrees to work on the piece of commissioned work with as much skill and attention detail as possible. She will attempt to stick to the guidelines agreed upon with the client and work to make a piece of artwork on their behalf to the best of her abilities.
